999

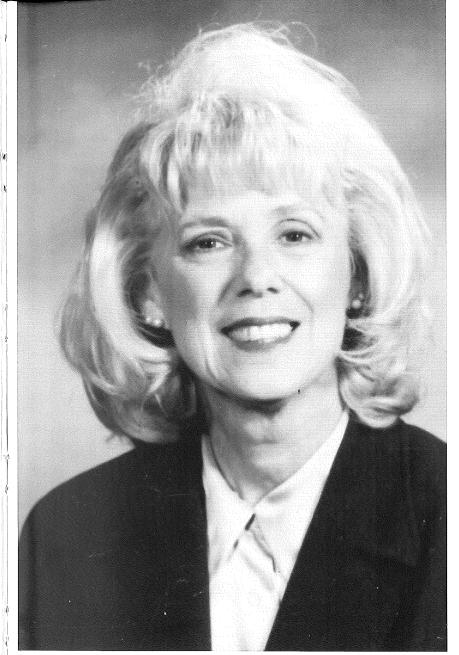

The bells ring and the halls get crowded with students going in different directions. You see some going fast; some slow. Most of them are in groups. laughing and talking to each-other. Friends! Friends who have always been there through the good times and the bad times, friends who are the best and there are no others alike. Now, it is time to leave, to go on and move forward... But don't forget to take your friends with you because by now, they have become your brothers and sisters.

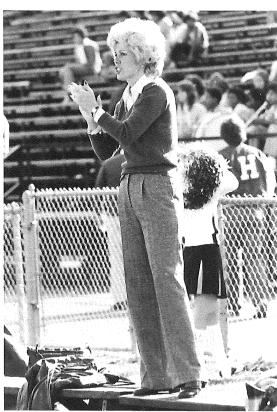

Now, the halls are empty; there is no more laughter, no more smiles; no more chatter... The friends have moved on. One thing lives in the halls though: Our Souls. Our hearts and souls will always remain in the halls of Bulkeley High!!!

GOOD LUCK TO THE CLASS OF 99!!!!!!

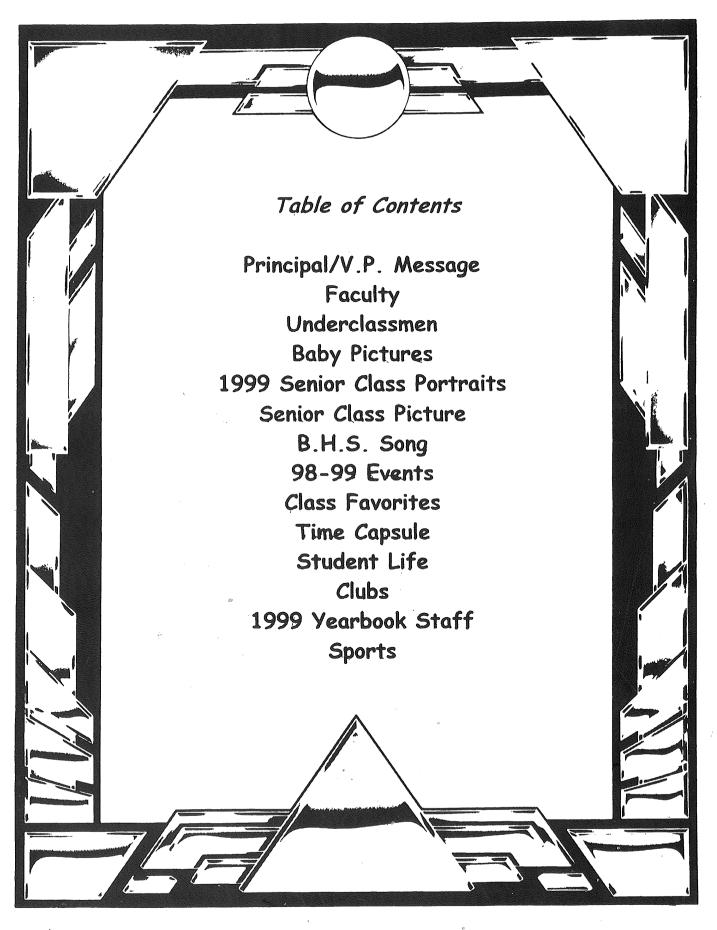

Dedicated to MRS. JUDY C. LYONS, one of the most brilliantly gifted and highly respected teachers of the Bulkeley family. Thank you for taking a stunningly novel approach to teaching and for opening your very big heart to your eternally grateful students.

ADMINISTRATION

Paul Stringer (Principal) To the graduating Class of 1999

The time you have so patiently waited for is finally here. You have worked hard and achieved many goals and objectives which you developed. You should be proud of yourselves, because you are deserving of the accolades and praise that you are now receiving.

However, now is not the time to sit on your laurels!

Now is the time to start fine tuning your future plans, especially those of you who are going on to institutions of higher learning, entering the military, or the job market. The education and skills which you have acquired from Bulkeley High School during the past four years are going to be tested immediately and you have to be prepared as you carve out your "niche" in life.

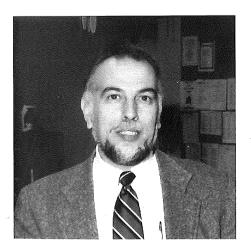

As the last graduating class of the "twentieth century" from Bulkeley High School, I am proud to have served as your principal. I have had the wonderful opportunity to be part of your life and hopefully you have gained something positive in your interactions with me.

I wish the class of 1999 the best as you begin a new chapter in your lives. Remember that you are and always will be a member of the "Bulkeley" family. If I can be of assistance to you in the near future, please feel free to call me.

As you enter into new challenges, remember this African proverb: "If you don't know from whence you came; you cannot know where you are going."

"Good Luck and Best Wishes to all of you."

Rafael Lopez

(Executive Vice Principal)

WHERE HAVE THEY GONE?

YOUTH: A THRUSTING RIVER AT THE SPRING THE CONSTANCE OF THE WAVE AGAINST THE ROCK THE PURE AND UNTAINTED SPLENDOR OF THE FIRMAMENT.

THE STILLNESS OF TIME.

STILLNESS? TIME FLIES!

WHERE HAVE FOUR MEASILY YEARS GONE?

IT SEEMS LIKE YESTERDAY; SOME SAY.

WHEN YOU ARRIVED SCARED AND UNCERTAIN

NOT KNOWING HOW YOUR NEXT FOUR YEARS WOULD BE,

LITTLE YOU KNEW HOW FAST THEY WOULD GO.

AND BY THE TIME THE STAGE LIGHTS WENT ON

THE BEWILDERED YOUNGSTER HAD BEEN REPLACED

BY A SOPHISTICATED YOUNG ADULT.

WHERE HAVE THEY GONE?

AWAY, YOU SAY?

MAYBE!

IT IS POSSIBLE THEY STAYED; IN SPIRIT THAT IS! DISPERSED BY THE BLOWING OF THE WIND, SWALLOWED BY AN UNCANNY WORLD,

WHERE HAVE THEY GONE?

NOWHERE, SILLY

THEY ARE STILL HERE,

LISTEN!

WHEN THIS PLACE IS EMPTY, LISTEN CAREFULLY,
YOU WILL HEAR A HUM, THEN A ROAR, AN EXPLOSION OF VOICES.
YOU WILL HEAR THEM ALL, IN THE CLASSROOMS, IN THE GYMNASIUM, SPLASHING IN THE POOL!

LOOK AROUND, CHECK THE WALLS, THE DESKS!
THEIR MARKINGS ARE STILL THERE.

THE ENTIRE BUILDING IS SATURATED WITH THEIR PRESENCE!
WHERE HAVE THEY GONE, YOU SAY?

NOWHERE!

THEY MIGHT BE GONE PHYSICALLY, BUT,
THEIR ADOLESCENCE WILL LINGER HERE FOR EVER.
HERE, WHERE WE PREPARED THEM TO LEAVE.

ANTHONY DI PIETRO

Don't Quit

When people pull you down, as they often will When the battle you're fighting is all up hill When the funds are low and the debts are high When you're laughing, although you'd rather cry When you discover yourself slowing down a bit Stop and take a deep breath, but don't you quit

How often you'll find that you've come so far
Yet you must steady your pace, can't stay where you are
You'll need twice the effort to make your way
Tomorrow won't come 'til you've conquered today
You'll discover yourself slowing down a bit
Stop and rest if you must, but don't you quit

Always do the best that you can possibly do
Treasure your friends as they are far and few
Never give up, whatever the burden you bear
Just one more step might get you there
How often the journey that proceeds so slow
Will conclude abruptly when dealt the final blow

Success is belief that you cannot fail
The winds of happiness that fill your sail
Winners are often born when the going gets rough
In those moments of peril the strong get tough
Life will often press you down a bit
Stand up and shout, "I will not quit!"

To the Class of '99:

I would like to thank the yearbook staff for their help and support in making this book become a reality. It was hard and frustrating at times, but I believe that in the end it was all worth it. Best of luck to the Class of 1999! Editor-in-Chief Caste Blanco

In Loving Memory Of

Melanie Rosado 1981-1999

"Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there. I did not die."
In Memory of Melanie Rosado

A Winner's Creed

If you think you are beaten, you are;
If you think you dare not, you don't;
If you'd like to win, but think you can't,
It's almost a cinch you won't.

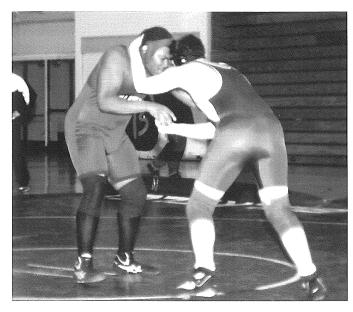

If you think you'll lose, you're lost,
For out in the world we find
Success begins with a person's faith;
It's all in the state of mind.

Life's battle don't always go
To the stronger or faster hand;
They go to the one who trust in God
And always thinks "I can."

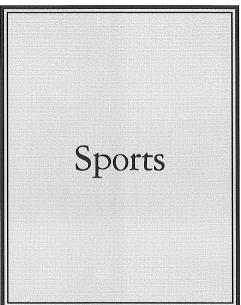

Everybody, Somebody, Anybody, and Nobody

Once upon a time there were four men named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody, and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was asked to do it. But Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it. But Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about it, because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought that Anybody could do it, and Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn't do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody and Nobody did the job that Anybody could have done in the first place. At last report, these four men were still arguing and the job they were supposed to do still wasn't done.

Bulkeley High School

Class President: Yajaira Colon Valedictorian: Liljana Kaci Salutatorian: Orest Skoplyak

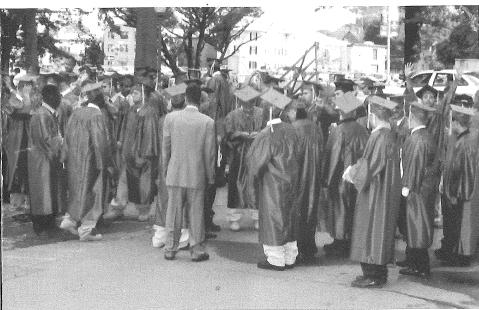

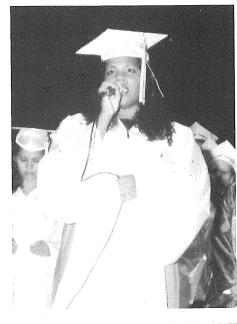

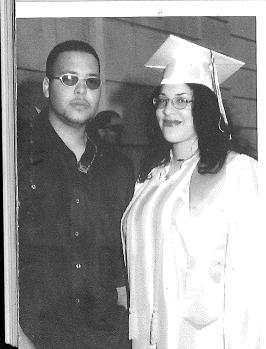

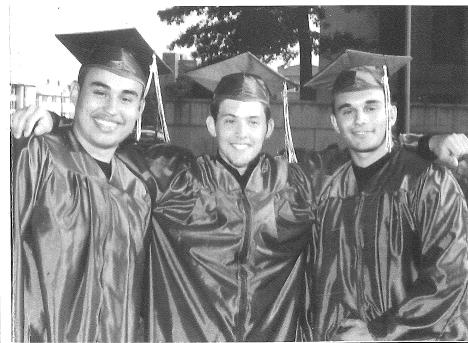

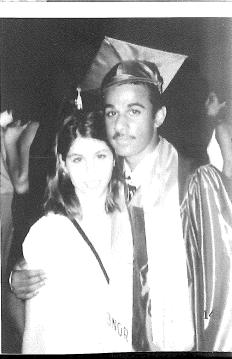

Bulkeley Bulldogs . . . as we make our way in this world, let us not forget our high school years, for they were some of the most memorable years of our lives. We would be lying if we said that our past four years at Bulkeley have been easy, effortless, and even relaxing. On the contrary, we would have to say that they were some of the most challenging years of our lives but we made it Class of 1999! And we can also make it in Corporate America. Remember that "nothing splendid has ever been achieved except by those who dared believe that something inside of them was superior to circumstance." We are all superior to circumstance and should never believe otherwise. There is no achievement without goals so let us aim for goals always. Best of luck to us all, and let us bring peace, love, and understanding to the new millennium. Bulldogs forever!

"No one can predict to what heights you can soar until you spread your wings . . . "
